“ Judy Mom~ It's 7:30 in the morning on the day we put your body in your final resting place here on earth and I just don't know how I'm going to be able to get through it! You fought so hard for the last seven months and I know you wanted desperately to get better. I just hope that the strength that you showed through all of the tests, the poking, the proding, the procedures and those awful ambulance journies will help me to be strong for you and for Dad today. I think you will find it funny that the only way I've been able to breathe these last few days is by dabbing a little bit of Vics vapor rub under my nose...all those years you had to chase me around the house to get me to put that on my chest when I had a cold when I was little and now I'm using it. Mom, no amount of Vics or anything else is going to make today any easier, losing you has been the worst thing to ever happen in my life and I'm sure everyone else in the family feels the same way..you were our center! So for you and for your memory I will soldier on and it gives me some comfort to know that Granny and Darrell are taking care of you now. Rest in peace, Mom, you have certainly earned it. Don't worry about Dad, we'll take good care of him. So until I see you again, Mom, stay with me in spirit and always in my heart! Love~your daughter, Judy

“ Daughter Dianne PIE Mom, May God be with us today as we lay you to rest. The last few days have been so difficult for us all, but in no comparison to the braveness fight you have endured for the last seven months on your sweet life. You brought smiles to every one of your nurses. I think you were developing a nickname sweetie pie. Mom, You would have been proud of us though. Through the many tears that we continue to cry, you looked like a beautiful princess in my eyes. Your stunning green dress your favorite colored pink roses placed gently upon you. You would have proud of Denny Dustin too. Dustin had that long hair cut, not too short of course, they both looked like such handsome gentlemen. I told them both, that you would be saying, oh my goodness, you look so handsome youngons. There were many people there mom. Your beauty was just flowing throughout. The minister had said to us all, to remember the happy times. Remember your contagious laugh that Glenda had remembered. So mom I will continue to softly cry as I have so many nights now, but I will try remember the funny, witty, crazy, fiesty times that you brought bittersweet laughter to my gut. Mom, WE WILL TAKE CARE OF DEAR DAD> Right now he has three momma's taking care of him. Aunt Dorothy, Gaila, Glenda. They have brought some comfort for me mom as well. After today though, when they have to go, Dad will continue to have his momma's to take care of him. We will take care of each other as well. For we will always, always, MISS YOU! I am sorry mom that I didn't tell you this more often. Mom, I LOVE YOU! Mom, May God be with us today in spirit strength, forgive us for our sins, comfort us in your loving hands today, and keep you close in our hearts forever, in the name of your dear son Jesus. Amen

“ The Williams Family Mr. Elders, We are sorry to hear about the passing of your beautiful wife. We hope that you will find peace and comfort knowing that she is still with you in spirit. Dianne and Family, The loss of a parent is never easy even though we know it will eventually happen. Go forth knowing that your mom's memory lives on through all of you. I believe she is at peace and is watching over all of you. You are in our prayers, Joe, Angela, Malachi and Markita

“ Alicia Grandma, Thank you so much for all the memories I have with you! Thank you for always listening to me when I needed to vent. Thank you for sharing all my special days with me from, homecoming, prom, graduation, meeting all the boy friends, to loving Brad as much as I do, spending that wonderful day with me getting my wedding dress and going to dinner. I will always cherish the times we had together. Thank you for baby sitting me for many years growing up. Still to this day when Opera is done and channel 7 news comes on, it brings back so many memories. Back in the day it ment papaw and Uncle Dave would be home and dinner was ready!

“ Dianne (PIE) Mom, You are my hero! Thank you for the many inspirations, strength courage you have shown me. As the many miles that have separated us in past, I always longed to be home again in your loving arms. I will always chuckle, when your personality traits will come out in me I will know that you will be laughing with me. You are at peace now mom, in God's loving hands. I will always miss you, but you will always be in my heart. We will take care of Dad, as you have taught us well. MOM, I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU!!!! Good Bye For Now----- 11/27/2008 6:46 a.m.
