“ My deepest sympathy to the Evers family during this difficult time. May Jehovah God comfort and surround you with peace and hope. Revelation 21:4. God's son Jesus, also promised at John 5:28,29 that one day soon, dying will be a thing of the past, and then you will see \"Garnet\" again. Until that time, continue to cherish all of those wonderful memories that you have shared together.

“ To the family of Garnet Joseph Evers, I'm so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There are no words to describe the pain that death causes. I have lost many loved ones in death. These Bible scriptures have comforted me: 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 calls God, \"the God of all comfort, who comforts us...\"; Acts 24:15 mentions the resurrection. Death was not part of God's original plan, as Genesis 2:16,17 reasons that if Adam and Eve didn't eat from the tree that God said not to, they would never have died, and then death wouldn't have spread to us also. Revelation 21:3,4 mentions that one day God will end death, tears and pain. I hope this comforts you.

“ We live across the street from Gar and Gloria in Columbiaville. Unfortunately, we never got acquainted, other than a quick wave across the road or passing in the car. We always saw Gar getting the mail with his golf cart, or working endlessly in his yard to keep it well groomed and neat. He took a lot of pride in his home. It seems like only a couple of weeks ago that we saw him out mowing. They have been great neighbors. We send our most sincere condolences to Gloria, all the children and friends. Thinking of all of you, Roy and Shirley Wisenbaugh
