“ I hope the words below will be of some comfort to you and your family. The bible states, as the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing 1Corinthians 15:26. Never again will grief stricken people have to go to the cemetery to bury a loved one. According to Revelation 21:4 death will be no more.

“ I remember Pat with great memories. Thank you for all the memories growing up. My parents were good friends with you and always had good things to say. I remember you attending a lot, and I mean a lot of parties at our house after bowling and then when I got a little older I started babysitting for you. You are always very kind and fatherly to me. Thank you. You will be greatly missed. So sorry for your families loss. Love to you all!

“ Pat was a great Mentor. I have known Pat for almost 19 years and if I had a Bosch question he normally had the answer. Loved the hats, we would compare my cowboy hats to his and what color to wear for the season. Pat will be missed. My prayers are for the comfort of the family.

“ I remember being a svc admin for Pat. He was comical even when he was angry which was not all the time. He was very detailed,organized and fun to be around when he'd come into the office. He was one of the techs I never had to worry about getting their paperwork in;I never had a customer complaint about him. Just seasoned and cool as a cucumber. I'll keep his pic on my FB page. I hope to see you in heaven when the saints march in Pat.
